Speech-Language Pathology Section of the Society of Language Culture

December 2-3, 2023 (remote form)

12/2 (Saturday) – session in Polish, 12/3 (Sunday) – session in English

Periodic speech-language pathology conferences are part of a more than forty-year-old tradition of the SLP Section of the Society of Language Culture. We kindly invite you to submit papers and posters that will focus on both research methodology and methodological solutions in the diagnosis and therapy of individuals of all ages with verbal and non-verbal communication disorders.

Registration for oral and poster presenters is done by filling out the submission form - the link is provided below (deadline: September 30, 2023). The title and abstract (150-200 words) must be included. Registration for listeners is also done by filling out the same submission form (deadline: November 20, 2023).
